

CONTENTS OF VOLUME X.

NUMBER LV.

	Page
ART. I.—Results derived from an examination of the United States Weather Maps for 1872, '73 and '74, with Plate I; by ELIAS LOOMIS,-----	1
II.—Preliminary Note on a Magnetic Proof Plane; by HENRY A. ROWLAND,-----	14
III.—On Pseudomorphs of Chlorite after Garnet at the Spurr Mountain Iron Mine, Lake Superior, with Plate II; by RAPHAEL PUMPELLY,-----	17
IV.—Application of the Horizontal Pendulum; by H. AMORY,-----	21
V.—Explosive properties of Methyl Nitrate; by M. CAREY LEA,-----	22
VI.—On Zonochlorite and Chlorastrolite; by GEO. W. HAWES,-----	24
VII.—On Glycogen and Glycocoll in the muscular tissue of Pecten irradians; by R. H. CHITTENDEN,-----	26
VIII.—Dr. Koch and the Missouri Mastodon; by E. ANDREWS,-----	32
IX.—Rate of Growth of Corals; by JOSEPH LECONTE,-----	34
X.—Results of Dredging Expeditions off the New England Coast in 1874, with Plates III and IV; by A. E. VERRILL,-----	36
XI.—Examination of Gases from the Meteorite of Feb. 12, 1875; by ARTHUR W. WRIGHT,-----	44
XII.—Discovery of two new Asteroids; by C. H. F. PETERS,-----	49
XIII.—Discovery of a method of obtaining Thermographs of the Isothermal Lines of the Solar Disc; by A. M. MAYER,-----	50

SCIENTIFIC INTELLIGENCE.

- Chemistry and Physics.*—On the action of a weaker acid on the Salts of a stronger one, HÜBNER and WIESINGER, 51.—On Iodous Chloride, BRENNEN: On the Paraffins of Pennsylvania Petroleum, MORGAN, 52.—Action of Ammonium chloride on Methyl alcohol, WEITH: On Glyceryl ether, VON ZOTTA, 53.—On the Purification of Salicylic Acid, RAUTERT: On a New Method of Testing Quinidine Sulphate, HESSE, 54.—Mechanical Equivalent of Heat, M. H. J. PULJ. 55.—Action of Magnets on Geissler Tubes, M. J. CHAUTARD: Effect of Electricity of high tension on Liquids, M. G. PLANTE, 56.
- Geology and Natural History.*—Greenland Glaciers: Subglacier rivers, 57.—Bulletin of the U. S. Geological Survey of the Territories, 58.—Second Geological Survey of Pennsylvania, 1874: Report upon the Reconnaissance of Northwestern Wyoming, including Yellowstone National Park, 59.—Report of Progress of the Mineralogical, Geological and Physical Survey of the State of Georgia for the period from Sept. 1 to Dec. 31, 1874, GEORGE LITTLE: Michigan, being condensed popular sketches of the Topography, Climate and Geology of the State, A. WINCHELL: Analysis of Ægirite from Arkansas, J. LAWRENCE SMITH: Second Appendix to Dana's Mineralogy, EDWARD S. DANA, 60.—Mineralogical Contributions, C. KLEIN: On the presence of Vanadium in Rocks: Pseudomorph after crystals of Labradorite from Verespatak, G. TSCHERMAK, 61.—Fungi: their Nature and Uses, 62.—Æstivation in Asimina, 63.—Sachs's Text-book of Botany: Morphological and Physiological, 64.—Zur Abwehr der schwen-dener-bornet'schen Flechtentheorie, G. W. KOERBER, 65.—Gustave Thuret: An Inquiry Respecting the Reversion of "Thoroughbred" Domestic Animals, W. H. BREWER, 67.—Seventh Annual Report on the Noxious, Beneficial, and other Insects of the State of Missouri, C. V. RILEY, 69.
- Astronomy.*—The Transit of Venus, Dec. 8, 1874, 70.—On the Solar Structure, FATHER SECCHI, 71.—Observations on Magnetic Declination made at the Trevandrum and Augustia Observatories, J. A. BROWN, 73.—Determination of weights to be given to observations for determining time with portable transit instruments, C. A. SCHOTT: On the Meteorite of Lancé, K. VON DRASCHE, 74.

Miscellaneous Scientific Intelligence.—On the Height of the St. Louis Directrix, G. C. BROADHEAD: Swedish Arctic Explorations: Norwegian Exploration, 75. British Arctic Expedition: American Association for the Advancement of Science, Milligrade Thermometric Scale: Dr. Horace Wells: Report of the Superintendent of the Coast Survey for the year 1871, 76.—The Life and Growth of Language, W. D. WHITNEY: The Recent Origin of Man, J. C. SOUTHALL: Note sur les Tremblements de Terre en 1871, M. ALEXIS PERREY, 77.—Storms, WM. BLASIUS: Climate and Time in their Geological Relations, JAMES CROLL: English Men of Science, F. GALTON: The Aerial World, G. HARTWIG: French Academy of Sciences, 78.—Obituary.—John Edward Gray, 78.—Admiral Sherard Osborn: Samuel Heinrich Schwabe: A. G. Findlay: M. Deshayes: Joseph Winlock: Sir William Logan, 80.
