

NUMBER XLV.

	Page
ART. XV.—On the possible Variability of the Earth's Axial Rotation, as investigated by Mr. Glasenapp; by SIMON NEWCOMB,	161
XVI.—Researches in Acoustics; by ALFRED M. MAYER, ...	170
XVII.—Description of a new apparatus for Gas Analysis; by C. W. HINMAN,	182
XVIII.—Researches on the Hexatomic compounds of Cobalt; by WOLCOTT GIBBS. (Continued),	189
XIX.—On the Mechanism of Stromboli; by ROBERT MALLET, ...	200
XX.—Brief Contributions from the Physical Laboratory of Harvard College. No. XI.—Increase of Magnetism in a bar of soft iron upon the reversal of the magnetizing current; by WILLIAM A. BURNHAM,	202
No. XII.—On the effect of longitudinal vibrations upon Electro-magnets; by E. L. CARNEY,	203
No. XIII.—Experiments on the Dissipation of Electricity by Flames; by J. W. FEWKES,	207
No. XIV.—Polarization of the Plates of Condensers; by A. S. THAYER,	208

SCIENTIFIC INTELLIGENCE.

Physics.—Dielectricity of Insulators, BOLZMANN, 210.—Flow of saline solutions through Capillary Tubes, HÜBENER, 211.—Change of volume by Fusion, MALLET, 212.

Geology and Natural History.—Reasons for some of the changes in the subdivisions of Geological time in the new edition of Dana's Manual of Geology, by the AUTHOR, 213.—The Winged Fruits of the Carboniferous genus Cardiocarpus: Coal of the Carboniferous era not made of bark: The ash of the better Coals of the American Carboniferous age often derived wholly from the plants, 216.—Fossil plants of the Carboniferous age in the Protogine of the Alps: The proposed genus Anomalodonta of Miller identical with the earlier Megaptera of Meek, 218.—On the Quaternary containing the New Brunswick fossil Cetacean; on Niagara Coral reefs; and on Niagara fossils in trap, by D. HONEYMAN, 219.—Descriptions of new species of Goniatidae, with a list of previously described species, by JAMES HALL, 220.—Preliminary Report on the First Season's Work of the Geological Survey of Yesso, by B. S. LYMAN: Reply to Dr. T. Sterry Hunt, by F. A. GENTH, 221.—Note on the Enemies of Diffugia, by J. LEIDY: Remarks on the revivification of Rotifer vulgaris, by J. LEIDY, 223.—Notice of some new Fresh-water Rhizopods, by J. LEIDY, 224.

Miscellaneous Scientific Intelligence.—Change of level in the Great Salt Lake, 226.—On the Physical Cause of Ocean Currents, by JAMES CRILL, 228.—On the Physical Geography of, and the Distribution of Terrestrial Mollusca in, the Bahama Islands by THOMAS BLAND, 231.—On the Ocean's bed between Honolulu and Yokohama, from Soundings on board the U. S. ship Tuscarora, 234.—Meeting of the American Association at Hartford, 235.—Chemical Centennial, 239.—Elements of Metallurgy, &c., by J. ARTHUR PHILLIPS: Volume of Collected Researches of J. Lawrence Smith, 240.
