CONTENTS TO VOLUME XXIX.

Number 169.

Art. I.—Dinosaurian Distribution; by R. S. Lull.............. 1

II.—Origin of the Crinoidal Muscular Articulations; by A.
H. Clark........................................ 40

III.—Substitution of Bromide and of Iodine for Chlorine in the Separation of Cerium from the other Cerium Earths;
by P. E. Browning and E. J. Roberts......................... 45

IV.—New Fossil Coleoptera from Florissant, with Notes on some already described; by H. F. Wickham................... 47

V.—Feldspar from Linosa, and the existence of Soda
Anorthite; by H. S. Washington and F. E. Wright.. 52

VI.—Rare and Imperfectly Known Brachiopods from the Mississippiian; by D. A. Gregor.................................. 71

VII.—Descriptions of Tertiary Plants, III; by T. D. A.
Cockerell........................................ 76

SCIENTIFIC INTELLIGENCE.

Chemistry and Physics.—Relative Volatility of the Bromides of Barium and Radium, Stock and HeyneMann: Action of Light upon Hydrogen Chloride, cohen and Wassiliewa: Ratio between Uranium and Radium in Minerals, Mlle. Gleditsch, 70.—Action of Radium Emanation upon the Elements of the Carbon Group, Ramsay and Usher: Quantitative Chemi-ical Analysis, Clowes and Coleman, 80.—Positive Electricity, J. J.
Thomson: Doppler Effect in Positive Rays in Hydrogen, T. Royds, 81.—
Magnetic Rotation of Plane of Polarization in the Ultra-red, U. Meyer:
Instantaneous X-Ray Photography, F. Dessauer: Light and Sound, W.
S. Franklin and B. Macnutt, 82.—Direct and Alternating Current Testing, F. Bedell: Elements of Physics, H. Crew and F. T. Jones, 83.

Geology.—Radio-activity and Geology, J. Joly, 83.—Geology and Ore
Deposits of Goldfield, Nevada, F. L. Ransome, 85.—United States Geological Survey, 86.—Geological Survey of West Australia: Contribuzioni allo
Studio Petrografico della Colonia Eritrea, E. Manasse, 87.—Carboniferous Air-breathing Vertebrates of the United States National Museum, R. L.
Moond: Cenozoic Mammal horizons of Western North America. H. F.
Osborn, with Fossil Lists of the Tertiary of the West, W. D. Matthew, 88.—New Fossil Mammals from the Fayum Oligocene, Egypt, H. F.
Osborn: New Carnivorous Mammals from the Fayum Oligocene, Egypt, H. F. Osborn, 89.—New or little known Titanotheres from the Eocene and the Oligocene, H. F. Osborn, 90.

Miscellaneous Scientific Intelligence.—The Autobiography of Nathaniel Southgate Shaler, 90.—Third Report of Wellcome Research Laboratories at the Gordon Memorial College, Khartoum, A. Barbour, 91.—Illustrations of African Blood-sucking Flies other than Mosquitoes and Tsetse-flies, E. E.
Austin: The Cambridge Natural History, Harmer and Shipley: The Human Body and Health, A. Davison: International Congress of Radiology and Electricity, 92.
